Rules for revaluation of Answer copies

1. Revaluation of answer copies shall be permissible for both main & supplementary examination of General Nursing Course & A.N.M. (Female Health Worker) Course.
2. In-complete application forms or application forms not accompanied with the requisite fee of Rs.350/- or the application received after the due date shall be rejected. The fee of revaluation shall not be refunded to the candidate.
3. Revaluation of answer copies shall be permissible in all the theory papers in which a candidate actually appeared, at an examination.
4. Revaluation of answer copies shall not be permitted for the practical examination, special examination & examination for boycotted papers.
5. The re-totalling of answer copies shall continue as has been in the past.
6. The fee of revaluation shall not be refunded to the candidate. If the award of second examiner (evaluator) is more than the award of the 1st examiner subject to a limit of 20% of the maximum marks prescribed for the paper, the same shall be taken as the marks obtained on revaluation. In case the award of the second examiner (evaluator) exceeds the above limit of 20% the answer copy shall be referred to a 3rd examiner & the average of the two closest awards shall be taken in to account.
7. If the award of the second examiner (evaluator) is less than that of the 1st examiner to the extent of 5% of the maximum marks prescribed the paper, the award of the 1st examiner shall stand.
8. In case the award of 2nd examiner (evaluator) is less than that of the first examiner & the decrease is more than 5% but not more than 20% of the maximum marks prescribed for the paper, the average of the two awards shall be taken as the marks of the revaluation provided the result of the candidate is not affected adversely, i.e., his division is not change or he does not get supplementary instead of pass or he does not fail instead of supplementary or he does not fail in an individual paper/subject instead of pass. In such cases the marks shall be decreased to the extent that his result is not affected adversely.
9. If the award of the second examiner (evaluator) is less than that of the 1st examiner and the decrease in marks exceeds 20% of the maximum marks prescribed for the paper the answer copies shall be referred to the 3rd examiner and the average of the two closest awards shall be taken as the marks of the revaluation.
10. Candidate desires to apply for revaluation may treat their result as "No Change " for submission of application form for appearing at the ensuing examination within due dates. In case their result changes consequent upon revaluation, the application form submitted by them will be amended accordingly. If a request to that effect is made by the candidate.
11. All court cases shall be subject to the Jurisdiction of the Rajasthan Nursing Council the Headquarter at Jaipur and not any other place.
